FINANCIAL BILL OPPOSED.

SENATOR CHANDLER AGAINST THE SINGLE GOLD STANDARD.

He Says the Bill Is in Deflance of the Republican Platform of 1896 and Declares That Gold Monometallism Is a Wrong to Humanity - Senators Chilton and Money Also Speak Against the Bill,

Mr. Chandler (Rep., N. H.) made a speech in opposition to it. He characterized it as a detion of good taste and of the traditions of the flance of the Republican platform of 1806 and organization. The circular is as follows: as unqualified gold monomeralism, and said that to advocate or submit to it without adequate recognition of the desire and determinaof silver would be an abandonment of Republis | her successor, for the following reasons:

"The Republican party," he declared, "is pledged to bimetallism. DOLLAR DISSER IN ROCHESTER.

The Democratic Club, James Nolan President, Decides to Have One in March. ROCHESTER, Feb. 10,-The Democratic Club of Monroe county has decided to have a "donar dinner" in this city, either on March 1 or March 8. This club comprises the members of the squad of the Democratic party, and James M. Nolan is its President. The one issue they will urge above all others is the Hon. William J. Bryan. Nolan announces that Congressman Sulzer and other prominent Democrats have promised to come to the dinner. The fight promised to come to the dinner. The fight between Nolan and the other wing of the party has becomely obtter that Nolan has applied for an injunction restraining the charman of the County Committee from acting. This injunction was argued in the county Court to-day, and the proceeding were dismissed, one of the groun is being that Nolan ha inot shown himself to be a citizen. Nolan is the man who believed that he was designated to "carry a message to Garcia" in the form of an open letter to the press, addressed to Congressman Grosvenor of Onio, which he has asked The Sur representative to have published for him. The letter follows:

"The McClellan sailed hence on Jan. 24 last for San Juan via Santiago. When we were one day out a stowaway named Curtis was found on board Mate Meritnew ordered found on board Mate Meritnew ordered him shackled and strung up by the wrists to the guy bracing a funnel, so that his toes just touched when the vessel was on an even keel and swung free of the deck when she rolled. He was strung up for over an hour, and when the McClellan arrived at Santiago, was put on shore. He carried an honorable discharge from the United States Army and had fought in Cuba. The McClellan started back from San Juan on the morning of Jan. 31, with a passenger on board named Schwen, who had been a teamster in the service of the Government. He had an army transportation pass and an order for rations on the voyage. On the high seas Mate Merithew ordered Schwen to do some work and he refused, because he was not under any one's orders. Merithew ordered him handcuffed and he was also strung up to the funnel guy. He was kept there for an hour and then put in the brig for the night, with his hands handcuffed behind him. When we got to Santiago the mate put him on shore and said that he was a deserter. The steamer Santiago of the Cuban mail service was in the harbor at the time and arrived here yesterday. Schwen was on board.

"While the McClellan was in Santiago harbor I did something the boatswain's mate didn't like and he kicked me so hard that I had to have a surgeon. When we got here I complained to the officers of the transport service, but could get no satisfaction."

A RESOURCE OF STRENGTH AND ENERGY

PAINE'S CELERY COMPOUND

Harry D. Elks, Glens Falls, N. Y., writes:

"Early last spring I found that I was tired and languid, my appetite was failing, and I was becoming run down generally. I was advised to take Paine's Celery Compound, and after using it I never felt so well in all my life as I do now. It braced me up, gave me strength and vigor and made a new man of me. I rec ommend it to all persons who have tired and languid feelings, to all athletes, and to all who work hard mentally."

Paine's Celery Compound restores, strengthens and sustains vital energy and muscular force.

POUGHKEEPSIE, Feb. 10 .- At 4 o'clock this morning, while the freshmen were peacefully sleeping, the class of 1902 at Vassar held their tree ceremonies. At the appointed time groups of red-coated amazons, with helmets and shields, gathered silently about the big elm between Strong Hall and the main building. tween Strong Hall and the main building, amid the weird gleamings of a multitude of red lights. They formed in a circle and softly gave the class cheer by which the tree is secured to the class, and then proceeded to hold their impressive ceremonies.

The songs and speeches were followed by cheers for the class, which were echoed from the main building by 1302's sister class, 1900, Then the party adjourned to the symnasium, where the ceremony of knighting the sophomore class took place amid much laughter. Then the class dispersed. The most remarkable thing was that during all this time not one freshman appeared on the scene, and this was a success that is unparalleled in the history of the college.
